Mr. President,

Now on Japan

US and tricky

My delegation categorically rejects Japanese allegations. First, the ~~UN~~ resolution Japan refers to constitutes a product of conspiracy of a handful of countries including Japan and serves only the political purposes, which is why we do not even recognize ~~and~~ it. Second, Japanese abduction case which is the only one of its kind has been fundamentally and completely resolved ~~with nothing left over~~. Third, ~~Japan has huge human rights outstanding problems of the past and present such as 8.4 million abduction and forcible drafting, 1 million genocidal killing and 200,000 sexual slavery and consistent and systematic repression targeting Korean residents in Japan in all areas of life.~~ Japan ~~has never admitted this~~ and is trying to deny it as clearly evidenced by the remarks of the current Japanese Prime Minister who has vehemently refused to accept or apologize for among other things the military sexual slavery.

In conclusion

We strongly urge Japan to settle all past crimes against humanity rather than playing political games on already resolved abduction case. Thank you.

The United States is not qualified to refer to other situations as it is the ~~single~~ ~~leader~~ of ~~the world~~ many violations around the world ~~state~~ ~~single~~ ~~leader~~ such as the invasion of Iraq and civilian killings there torture and ~~at~~ ~~home~~ ~~violations~~ ~~under~~ ~~liberty~~ ~~and~~ ~~instability~~ ~~Guantanamo~~ and ~~secret~~ ~~camps~~ ~~and~~

My delegation ~~very much~~ regrets that ~~the DPRK~~ ~~positions~~ and ~~concern~~ ~~on the cause of UN resolution~~ were not reflected in ~~the High Com~~ ~~response~~ although we have explained ~~time and again~~ ~~on the cause of UN resolution~~ ~~share~~
